

BDA Launches New Employees Training Course

The BDA has developed a new employee training course aimed at assisting employees with dyslexia across core skill areas in the workplace.

The course will provide delegates with a range of strategies, techniques and approaches to increase personal effectiveness and efficiency.

Attendees can decide on three areas from the following options:

- Personal Organisation and Planning
- Concept Mapping
- Presentation Skills
- Meeting Skills

The price for one day's training and associated training materials is £235 + VAT per delegate.

To keep the course relevant to individual needs, the maximum attendance will be six people.

For more information and course dates please contact Sharon Blake at sharonb@bdadyslexia.org.uk or call 0845 251 9004.
